Program Policies

Absence Policy

There are no make-ups for student absences and such cancellations will not result in any type of adjustment of tuition. At the beginning of the semester, specific days and times for lessons are agreed upon between parents/guardians, students and instructors through the Academy Office. If an instructor is absent, every effort will be made provide make up lessons. The same policy will apply to cancellation due to inclement weather.

Other Policies

- Children are to be escorted to their instructor and met at the classroom door at the end of each lesson.
- The Academy is not responsible for musical instruments or any personal belongings left on the premises.
- The Academy will place a message on our telephone answering system regarding cancellations/resuming classes in the event of inclement weather.

Photography Consent

From time to time still and video photography is made during APA activities and used in the seeking of grant funding, and promotional and historical documentation. I/We hereby grant permission the above mentioned minor may be included in photography of APA activities. I/We hereby irrevocably grant to APA, the right to use these photographic images as a result of the student's participation in approved activities of APA.
